

GEOFF FOSTER
DIRECTOR

QUALIFICATIONS

Diploma of Civil Engineering

Member Institution of Engineers, Australia

Chartered Professional Engineer

KEY COMPETENCIES

Civil design and design co-ordination of major industry sectors, including residential, retail, commercial, industrial and Health Care.

Design co-ordination, authority and client liaison for broad acre land development projects, both residential and industrial. Preparation of development strategies, construction cost estimates, cash flows, development advice, water sensitive urban design and management of construction phase activities.

EXPERIENCE

2005 to date: Appointed Director

2002 to 2005: Re-joined Bonacci Group as Associate Director, October 2002

2000 to 2001: Appointed Associate, June 2000

1997 to 2000: Joined Bonacci Group as Senior Engineer

1989 to 1997: Contract engineer – senior civil engineer for Meinhardt (Vic), Lanigan Baldwin, Street Moorhouse, Prostruct and Neil Hocking & Associates

1984 to 1988: Irwin Johnston & Partners – Contract/construction engineer

1981 to 1984: WL Meinhardt & Partners – Senior Civil Engineer

1977 to 1981: Sir Alexander Gibb & Partners – Design Engineer

1973 to 1976: Scott & Furphy Engineers – Design Engineer

1972 to 1973: Garlick & Stewart – Engineer

RECENT MAJOR PROJECTS

Name	Location	Industry Sector	Project Cost
The Groves in Plenty Valley	Mernda	Residential	$52 million
Malongola Heights Estate	Tasmania	Residential Estate	$10 million
Royal Women's Hospital Redevelopment	Parkville	Hospital, Health Care	$250 million
Knox Shopping Centre	Knox	Retail	$170 million
Westgate Ports Redevelopment	Port Melbourne	Industrial	$20 million