

BENDIGO SCHOOLS PROJECTS

This project involves the design and delivery of two campuses, utilising visionary education principles that are similar to the requirements of the Kingston School.

The plan will require the Bendigo schools to develop an educational vision appropriate to the needs of twenty-first century learners. Through the plan, student learning will be transformed, wellbeing and engagement will be improved, seamless transitions and pathways will be provided, and an educational environment will be developed that is innovative, responsive and dynamic.

