

CHISHOLM INSTITUTE
Dandenong Campus

This $13 million project involved refurbishment of several sections of the existing trade school, as well as construction of a new single-storey staff amenities building, a new single storey multi-bay steel framed fabrication and welding wing, containing an overhead travelling crane and a two-storey steel and concrete framed signature building containing offices, classrooms and laboratory space for education and training, related to the fields of science and robotics.

