

GRAND HYATT, MELBOURNE

Consistently voted Australia's finest hotel, the Grand Hyatt includes 580 rooms, convention and function centre, retail mall and international food court.

The thirty four level building includes five basements of carparking (570 cars). Loadbearing wall construction in the residential tower is transferred to widely spaced columns through the podium and carparking levels. Total built area is in excess of 85,000 square metres.

Location:
Melbourne CBD, Victoria

Client:
Lustig & Moar Group (Vic) Pty Ltd

Architect:
Peddle Thorp

Construction Cost:
$130 million

